Attachment – Scheme By-Laws

Schedule 1 – Governance By-Laws

1 Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 Definitions

The following words have these meanings in the Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 by-laws unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) Act means the Strata Titles Act 1985 (WA).
- (b) Alfresco Areas means any outdoor or open air eating, drinking or entertainment area adjacent to or comprised in a Commercial Lot.
- (c) Building means the building on the parcel.
- (d) Commercial Lots means Lots 1 to 6 inclusive on the strata plan.
- (e) Development means the development comprising the lots and common property on the strata plan.
- (f) Eatery Lot means any Commercial Lot used as a cafe, kiosk, brasserie, bar, restaurant or takeaway premises.
- (g) Excluded Dog means:
 - (i) a Pit Bull Terrier;
 - (ii) a Doberman Pinscher;
 - (iii) any dog prohibited from importation into Australia by the Commonwealth government, and
 - (iv) an unregistered or dangerous dog under the Dog Act 1976 (WA).
- (h) Land means the land comprised in the strata plan.
- (i) Local Government means the local government having jurisdiction over the land.
- (j) Original Proprietor means the registered proprietor of the Land at the time that the scheme was constituted by registration of the strata plan.
- (k) Residential Complex means that part of the Building which includes the lots comprising:
 - (i) the Residential Lots; and
 - (ii) the common property that may be used by the proprietors of the Residential Lots.
- (l) Residential Lots means Lots 7 to 59 inclusive on the strata plan.
- (m) Residential Recreational Facilities means the pool, gym and other recreational facilities situated on the common property in the Residential Complex.
- (n) Small Dog means any breed of dog which:
 - (i) at its full grown size does not exceed 10 kilograms, and
 - (ii) is not an Excluded Dog.
- (o) Strata Manager means any person who is appointed from time to time as such by the strata company pursuant to these by-laws.

- (p) Unit Entitlement Basis means, in respect of contributions by proprietors to the administrative expenses fund and the reserve fund, the levying of those contributions in proportion to the unit entitlements of their respective lots.

1.2 Interpretation

In the Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 by-laws:

- (a) Reference to any statute or statutory provision includes a reference to:
- (i) that statute or statutory provision as may from time to time be amended, extended, re-enacted or consolidated; and
 - (ii) all statutory instruments or orders made pursuant to it.
- (b) Words denoting the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.
- (c) Words denoting any gender include all genders and words denoting persons shall include firms and corporations and vice versa.
- (d) A reference to a person includes a natural person and an incorporated entity.
- (e) Headings are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of a Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 by-law.
- (f) Unless otherwise defined, terms used in these Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 by-laws have the same meaning as defined in the Act.

2 Duties of proprietor, occupiers etc.

- (1) A proprietor shall —
- (a) forthwith carry out all work that may be ordered by any competent public authority or local government in respect of his lot other than such work as may be for the benefit of the building generally and pay all rates, taxes, charges, outgoings and assessments that may be payable in respect of his lot;
 - (b) repair and maintain his lot, and keep it in a state of good repair, reasonable wear and tear, and damage by fire, storm, tempest or act of God excepted.
- (1a) A proprietor shall —
- (a) notify the strata company forthwith upon any change of ownership, including in the notice an address of the proprietor for service of notices and other documents under this Act; and
 - (b) if required in writing by the strata company, notify the strata company of any mortgage or other dealing in connection with his lot, including in the case of a lease of a lot, the name of the lessee and the term of the lease.
- (2) A proprietor, occupier or other resident of a lot shall —
- (a) use and enjoy the common property in such a manner as not unreasonably to interfere with the use and enjoyment thereof by other proprietors, occupiers or residents, or of their visitors; and
 - (b) not use the lot or permit it to be used in such manner or for such purpose as causes a nuisance to any occupier of another lot (whether a proprietor or not) or the family of such an occupier; and
 - (c) take all reasonable steps to ensure that his visitors do not behave in a manner likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of the proprietor, occupier or other resident of another lot or of any person lawfully using common property; and

- (d) take all reasonable steps to ensure that his visitors comply with the by laws of the strata company relating to the parking of motor vehicles.

3 Power of proprietor to decorate etc.

A proprietor may, without obtaining the consent of the strata company, paint, wallpaper or otherwise decorate the structure which forms the inner surface of the boundary of his lot or affix locking devices, flyscreens, furnishings, furniture, carpets and other similar things to that surface, if and so long as such action does not unreasonably damage the common property.

4 Power of strata company regarding submeters

- (1) Where the supply of gas or electricity to a lot is regulated by means of a submeter, the strata company may require the proprietor or other occupier of the lot to pay the strata company by way of security for the payment of charges arising through the submeter an amount not exceeding $200 and, if any amount so paid is applied by the strata company under sub bylaw (2), to pay such further amount or amounts by way of such security as may be necessary to maintain the amount of the security as, subject to this sub bylaw, the strata company may require.
- (2) The strata company shall lodge every sum received under this by law to the credit of an interest bearing account with an ADI (authorised deposit taking institution) as defined in section 5 of the Banking Act 1959 of the Commonwealth and all interest accruing in respect of amounts so received shall, subject to this by law, be held on trust for the proprietor or occupier who made the payment.
- (3) If the proprietor or other occupier of a lot in respect of which a submeter is used for the supply of gas or electricity refuses or fails to pay any charges due for the supply of gas or electricity to that lot, the strata company may apply in payment of those charges all, or such part as is necessary, of any amount paid to the strata company by that proprietor or occupier under this by law, including any interest that may have accrued in respect of that amount.
- (4) Where a person who has paid an amount under this by law to a strata company satisfies the strata company that he is no longer the proprietor or occupier of a lot and that the strata company no longer has any liability or contingent liability for the supply of gas or electricity to that lot during the period when that person was a proprietor or occupier of the lot, the strata company shall refund to that person the amount then held on his behalf under this by law.

5 Constitution of council

- (1) The powers and duties of the strata company shall, subject to any restriction imposed or direction given at a general meeting, be exercised and performed by the council of the strata company and a meeting of the council at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, functions or powers of the council.
- (2) Until the first annual general meeting of the strata company, the proprietors of all the lots shall constitute the council.

- (3) Where there are not more than 3 proprietors the council shall consist of all proprietors and where there are more than 3 proprietors the council shall consist of not less than 3 nor more than 7 proprietors as is determined by the strata company.
- (4) Where there are more than 3 proprietors the members of the council shall be elected at each annual general meeting of the strata company or, if the number of proprietors increases to more than 3, at an extraordinary general meeting convened for the purpose.
- (5) In determining the number of proprietors for the purposes of this by law, co proprietors of a lot or more than one lot shall be deemed to be one proprietor and a person who owns more than one lot shall also be deemed to be one proprietor.
- (6) If there are co-proprietors of a lot, one only of the co-proprietors shall be eligible to be, or to be elected to be, a member of the council and the co proprietor who is so eligible shall be nominated by his co proprietors, but, if the co proprietors fail to agree on a nominee, the co proprietor who owns the largest share of the lot shall be the nominee or if there is no co proprietor who owns the largest share of the lot, the co proprietor whose name appears first in the certificate of title for the lot shall be the nominee.
- (7) On an election of members of the council, a proprietor shall have one vote in respect of each lot owned by him.
- (8) Except where the council consists of all the proprietors, the strata company may by special resolution remove any member of the council before the expiration of his term of office.
- (9) A member of the council vacates his office as a member of the council —
 - (a) if he dies or ceases to be a proprietor or a co proprietor of a lot; or
 - (b) upon receipt by the strata company of notice in writing of his resignation from the office of member; or
 - (c) at the conclusion of an annual general meeting of the strata company at which an election of members of the council takes place and at which he is not elected or re elected; or
 - (d) in a case where he is a member of the council by reason of there being not more than 3 proprietors, upon an election of members of the council (as a result of there being an increase in the number of proprietors to more than 3) at which he is not elected; or
 - (e) where he is removed from office under sub bylaw (8).
- (10) Any casual vacancy on the council may be filled by the remaining members of the council, except that, in a case where a casual vacancy arises because of the removal from office of a member under sub bylaw (8), the strata company may resolve that the casual vacancy shall be filled by the strata company at a general meeting.
- (11) Except where there is only one proprietor, a quorum of the council shall be 2 where the council consists of 3 or 4 members; 3, where it consists of 5 or 6 members; and 4, where it consists of 7 members.
- (12) The continuing members of the council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the council, but so long as the number of members is reduced below the number fixed by these by laws as the quorum of the council, the continuing members or member of the council may act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the council or convening a general meeting of the strata company, but for no other purpose.

- (13) All acts done in good faith by the council shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any member of the council, be as valid as if that member had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office.

6 Election of council

The procedure for nomination and election of members of a council shall be in accordance with the following rules —

- (1) The meeting shall determine, in accordance with the requirements of by law 4(3) the number of persons of whom the council shall consist.
- (2) The chairman shall call upon those persons present and entitled to nominate candidates to nominate candidates for election to the council.
- (3) A nomination is ineffective unless supported by the consent of the nominee to his nomination, given —
 - (a) in writing, and furnished to the chairman at the meeting; or
 - (b) orally by a nominee who is present at the meeting.
- (4) When no further nominations are forthcoming, the chairman —
 - (a) where the number of candidates equals the number of members of the council determined in accordance with the requirements of by law 4(3), shall declare those candidates to be elected as members of the council;
 - (b) where the number of candidates exceeds the number of members of the council as so determined, shall direct that a ballot be held.
- (5) If a ballot is to be held, the chairman shall —
 - (a) announce the names of the candidates; and
 - (b) cause to be furnished to each person present and entitled to vote a blank paper in respect of each lot in respect of which he is entitled to vote for use as a ballot paper.
- (6) A person who is entitled to vote shall complete a valid ballot paper by —
 - (a) writing thereon the names of candidates, equal in number to the number of members of the council so that no name is repeated; and
 - (b) indicating thereon the number of each lot in respect of which his vote is cast and whether he so votes as proprietor or first mortgagee of each such lot or as proxy of the proprietor or first mortgagee; and
 - (c) signing the ballot paper; and
 - (d) returning it to the chairman.
- (7) The chairman, or a person appointed by him, shall count the votes recorded on valid ballot papers in favour of each candidate.
- (8) Subject to sub bylaw (9), candidates, being equal in number to the number of members of the council determined in accordance with by law 4(3), who receive the highest numbers of votes shall be declared elected to the council.

- (9) Where the number of votes recorded in favour of any candidate is the lowest of the numbers of votes referred to in sub bylaw (8) and —
- (a) that number equals the number of votes recorded in favour of any other candidate; and
 - (b) if each of those candidates were to be declared elected the number of persons elected would exceed the number of persons required to be elected,
- as between those candidates, the election shall be decided by a show of hands of those present and entitled to vote.

7 Chairman, secretary and treasurer of council

- (1) The members of a council shall, at the first meeting of the council after they assume office as such members, appoint a chairman, a secretary and a treasurer of the council.
- (2) A person —
 - (a) shall not be appointed to an office referred to in sub bylaw (1) unless he is a member of the council; and
 - (b) may be appointed to one or more of those offices.
- (3) A person appointed to an office referred to in sub bylaw (1) shall hold office until —
 - (a) he ceases to be a member of the council; or
 - (b) receipt by the strata company of notice in writing of his resignation from that office; or
 - (c) another person is appointed by the council to hold that office, whichever first happens.

- (4) The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the council at which he is present and, if he is absent from any meeting, the members of the council present at that meeting shall appoint one of their number to preside at that meeting during the absence of the chairman.

8 Chairman, secretary and treasurer of strata company

- (1) Subject to sub bylaw (2), the chairman, secretary and treasurer of the council are also respectively the chairman, secretary and treasurer of the strata company.
- (2) A strata company may at a general meeting authorise a person who is not a proprietor to act as the chairman of the strata company for the purposes of that meeting.
- (3) A person appointed under sub bylaw (2) may act until the end of the meeting for which he was appointed to act.

9 Meetings of council

- (1) At meetings of the council, all matters shall be determined by a simple majority vote.
- (2) The council may —
 - (a) meet together for the conduct of business and adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit, but the council shall meet when any member of the

- council gives to the other members not less than 7 days' notice of a meeting proposed by him, specifying in the notice the reason for calling the meeting;
- (b) employ on behalf of the strata company such agents and employees as it thinks fit in connection with the control and management of the common property and the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the strata company;
 - (c) subject to any restriction imposed or direction given at a general meeting of the strata company, delegate to one or more of its members such of its powers and duties as it thinks fit, and at any time revoke the delegation.
- (3) A member of a council may appoint a proprietor, or an individual authorised under section 45 of the Act by a corporation which is a proprietor, to act in his place as a member of the council at any meeting of the council and any proprietor or individual so appointed shall, when so acting, be deemed to be a member of the council.
 - (4) A proprietor or individual may be appointed under sub bylaw (3) whether or not he is a member of the council.
 - (5) If a person appointed under sub bylaw (3) is a member of the council he may, at any meeting of the council, separately vote in his capacity as a member and on behalf of the member in whose place he has been appointed to act.
 - (6) The council shall keep minutes of its proceedings.

10 Powers and duties of secretary of strata company

The powers and duties of the secretary of a strata company include —

- (a) the preparation and distribution of minutes of meetings of the strata company and the submission of a motion for confirmation of the minutes of any meeting of the strata company at the next such meeting; and
- (b) the giving on behalf of the strata company and of the council of the notices required to be given under the Act; and
- (c) the supply of information on behalf of the strata company in accordance with section 43(1)(a) and (b) of the Act; and
- (d) the answering of communications addressed to the strata company; and
- (e) the calling of nominations of candidates for election as members of the council; and
- (f) subject to sections 49 and 103 of the Act the convening of meetings of the strata company and of the council.

11 Powers and duties of treasurer of strata company

The powers and duties of the treasurer of a strata company include —

- (a) the notifying of proprietors of any contributions levied pursuant to the Act; and
- (b) the receipt, acknowledgment and banking of and the accounting for any money paid to the strata company; and
- (c) the preparation of any certificate applied for under section 43 of the Act; and
- (d) the keeping of the books of account referred to in section 35(1)(f) of the Act and the preparation of the statement of accounts referred to in section 35(1)(g) of the Act.

12 General meetings of strata company

- (1) General meetings of the strata company shall be held once in each year and so that not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and that of the next.
- (2) All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- (3) The council may when ever it thinks fit and shall upon a requisition in writing made by proprietors entitled to a quarter or more of the aggregate unit entitlement of the lots convene an extraordinary general meeting.
- (4) If the council does not within 21 days after the date of the making of a requisition under this by law proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the requisitionists, or any of them representing more than one half of the aggregate unit entitlement of all of them, may themselves, in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the council, convene an extraordinary general meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of 3 months from the date on which the requisition was made.
- (5) Not less than 14 days' notice of every general meeting specifying the place, the date and the hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of that business, shall be given to all proprietors and registered first mortgagees who have notified their interests to the strata company, but accidental omission to give the notice to any proprietor or to any registered first mortgagee or non receipt of the notice by any proprietor or by any registered first mortgagee does not invalidate any proceedings at any such meeting.
- (6) If a proprietor gives notice in writing to the secretary of an item of business that the proprietor requires to be included on the agenda for the next general meeting of the strata company, the secretary shall include that item on the agenda accordingly and shall give notice of that item as an item of special business in accordance with sub bylaw (5).

13 Proceedings at general meetings

- (1) All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of the consideration of accounts and election of members to the council, or at an extraordinary general meeting.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in these by laws, no business may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (3) One half of the persons entitled to vote present in person or by duly appointed proxy constitutes a quorum.
- (4) If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of proprietors, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same place and time and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the persons entitled to vote and present constitute a quorum.
- (4a) Sub bylaws (3) and (4) do not apply to a general meeting of a strata company referred to in section 50B.

- (5) The chairman, may with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any general meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (6) Except where otherwise required by or under the Act, resolutions may be passed at a general meeting by a simple majority vote.
- (7) At any general meeting a resolution by the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by any proprietor present in person or by proxy.
- (8) Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on the show of hands been carried is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- (9) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (10) A poll if demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chairman thinks fit and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which such poll was demanded.
- (11) In the case of equality in the votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the question is determined in the negative.

14 Restriction on moving motion or nominating candidate

A person is not entitled to move a motion at a general meeting or to nominate a candidate for election as a member of the council unless the person is entitled to vote on the motion or at the election.

15 Votes of proprietors

- (1) On a show of hands each proprietor has one vote.
- (2) On a poll the proprietors have the same number of votes as the unit entitlements of their respective lots.
- (3) On a show of hands or on a poll votes may be given either personally or by duly appointed proxy.
- (4) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney and may be either general or for a particular meeting.
- (5) A proxy need not be a proprietor.
- (6) Except in cases where by or under the Act a unanimous resolution or a resolution without dissent is required, no proprietor is entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all contributions payable in respect of his lot have been duly paid and any other moneys recoverable under the Act by the strata company from him at the date of the notice given to proprietors of the meeting have been duly paid before the commencement of the meeting.
- (7) Co proprietors may vote by proxy jointly appointed by them and in the absence of such a proxy are not entitled to vote on a show of hands, except when the unanimous resolution of proprietors is required by the Act.
- (8) On any poll each co proprietor is entitled to such part of the vote applicable to a lot as is proportionate to his interest in the lot.

- (9) The joint proxy (if any) on a poll has a vote proportionate to the interests in the lot of such of the joint proprietors as do not vote personally or by individual proxy.

16 Common seal

- (1) The common seal of the strata company shall at no time be used except by authority of the council previously given and in the presence of the members of the council or at least 2 members of the council, who shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed, but where there is only one member of the strata company his signature shall be sufficient for the purpose of this by law.
- (2) The council shall make provision for the safe custody of the common seal.

17 Original Proprietor

While the Original Proprietor remains the proprietor of a lot, the Original Proprietor is entitled to be a member of the council. If the Original Proprietor nominates itself as a candidate for election to the council, the Original Proprietor will become a member of the council without the requirement for the Original Proprietor to be elected as a member of the council.

18 Theme

All Proprietors acknowledge that:

- (a) the scheme is a mixed use commercial and residential development;
- (b) restrictions have been placed, and further restrictions may be placed, on the scheme by the Local Government; and
- (c) where a Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 by-law includes restrictions imposed by the Local Government, the prior approval of the Local Government is required before the relevant by-laws can be changed, amended or repealed.

19 Strata Manager

- (a) The council must from time to time, by instrument in writing, appoint and remunerate a suitably qualified and professional Strata Manager and may, in like manner, delegate to the Strata Manager:
- (i) all of the council's power, authorities, duties and functions; or
- (ii) any one or more of its powers, authorities, duties and functions specified in the instrument;
- and may, in like manner, revoke the appointment and delegation or revoke in part each delegation.
- (b) Where the instrument of appointment so provides, a Strata Manager:
- (i) will have and may exercise and perform all the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the chairman, secretary and treasurer of the strata company and the council or such of those powers, authorities, duties and functions as may be specified in the instrument; and
- (ii) may sub-delegate each or any of the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred upon the Strata Manager by the instrument of its appointment to a person whom the Strata Manager considers properly qualified and experienced in the management and operation of properties similar to the Building.

- (c) To the extent that the Schedule 1 by-laws confer or impose any power or duty on the council, chairman, secretary or treasurer those powers and duties will be deemed to be conferred and imposed on the Strata Manager.
- (d) The council may in accordance with by-law 19(a):
 - (i) appoint a Strata Manager in conjunction with any other person, including the council of a strata company, in respect of any other strata scheme relating to land adjoining the parcel; and
 - (ii) delegate to the council of any other strata scheme relating to land adjoining the parcel, the right to appoint a Strata Manager, to discharge conjunctively the respective strata company's duties under section 35(1)(c) of the Act for both the scheme and the adjoining strata scheme.
- (e) The council may raise a separate levy from all proprietors to meet the costs of a Strata Manager appointed under by-law 19(a).

20 Strata contributions - administrative expenses and reserve fund

- (a) As provided in section 36 of the Act, the council may determine the amounts to be raised for the administrative expenses fund and the reserve fund and levy the proprietors:
 - (i) on a Unit Entitlement Basis; or
 - (ii) in any other manner permitted under the by-laws or the Act from time to time.
- (b) The council must:
 - (i) establish a reserve fund in accordance with section 36(2) of the Act; and
 - (ii) raise the amounts determined from time to time by levying contributions pursuant to section 36(2)(c) of the Act on the proprietors:
 - (A) on a Unit Entitlement Basis; or
 - (B) in any other manner permitted under the by-laws or the Act from time to time.

21 Lifts

Notwithstanding anything else in these by-laws to the contrary:

- (a) all costs associated with the use, maintenance and servicing of the lifts (Lift Expenses) will be recoverable from, and must be paid for by, the proprietors of the Lots as a contribution to the administrative fund on a Unit Entitlement Basis; and
- (b) the proprietor and occupiers of a Commercial Lot must not, and must not allow any person within their control, to use the lifts to access any part of the Residential Complex.

22 Exclusive Use and Special Privilege

22.1 Signage

- (a) In this by-law, Signage Area means (as the context requires):
- (i) that portion of the common property cubic space on the external facade of the Building set aside by the strata company for the installation of signs from time to time;
 - (ii) any area under the control of the strata company set aside by the strata company for the installation of signs from time to time; or
 - (iii) an exclusive use signage area the subject of by-law 22.1(b).
- (b) The council may grant to one or more of the proprietors of the Commercial Lots the right to install, affix and maintain Signs within a Signage Area.
- (c) If, at any time, a proprietor is granted the right to use or the exclusive use of a Signage Area, that proprietor may:
- (i) install its own sign in the Signage Area that complies with the requirement of this by-law; or
 - (ii) license the use of the Signage Area to an occupier who may install a sign that complies with the requirements of this by-law.
- (d) Any sign installed by a proprietor of a Commercial Lot in a Signage Area must be in compliance with the requirements of the Local Government and any other relevant authority.
- (e) A proprietor or occupier of a Commercial Lot must not:
- (i) place or maintain any external signage, awning or similar structure on any part of the external surfaces of the Commercial Lot or common property; or
 - (ii) display or maintain any internal signage within the Commercial Lot which is visible from outside the Commercial Lot,
- except in accordance with this by-law 22.1.
- (f) A proprietor granted exclusive use of a Signage Area must keep the Signage Area in good and serviceable repair, properly maintained and where necessary repair and replace and to do so whether damage or deterioration arises from fair wear and tear, inherent defect or any other cause in accordance with strata company's duties under section 35(1)(c) of the Act.
- (g) The Original Proprietor and its authorised selling agents shall have, for so long as it is a proprietor of a lot:
- (i) the special privilege of installing and keeping signs on common property advertising lots for sale or lease;
 - (ii) the exclusive use of the common property cubic space occupied by such signs; and
 - (iii) the special privilege of installing and keeping signs on the balconies of lots advertising those lots for sale or lease.

22.2 Car Bays

(a) Definitions

In this by-law 22.2 Exclusive Hours means the hours between 7am to 7pm every day.

(b) Lot 2

The proprietor of lot 2 is granted the exclusive use of the part of the common property delineated on Annexure A and marked "EX2" during the Exclusive Hours only.

(c) Lot 3

The proprietor of lot 3 is granted the exclusive use of the part of the common property delineated on Annexure A and marked "EX3" during the Exclusive Hours only.

(d) Lot 5

The proprietor of lot 5 is granted the exclusive use of the part of the common property delineated on Annexure A and marked "EX5" during the Exclusive Hours only.

(e) Lot 6

The proprietor of lot 6 is granted the exclusive use of the part of the common property delineated on Annexure A and marked "EX6" during the Exclusive Hours only.

(f) Use and Maintenance

(i) Each proprietor who is granted an exclusive use of a car bay under this by-law 22.2, must:

- (A) use each car bay only for the purpose of parking motor vehicles;
- (B) park vehicles within its car bay and not obstruct the car parking area;
- (C) keep its car bay free of rubbish and in a good, clean and substantial state of repair and condition;
- (D) except in the case of emergency repairs, not use its car bay for cleaning or repairing vehicles;
- (E) not enclose or construct any structure within its car bay without the prior written consent of the strata company; and
- (F) not store any goods or equipment including transport containers within any part of its car bay.

A proprietor or occupier of a lot must not install or cause to be installed a security alarm system which has an audible alarm, but is permitted to install a monitored (i.e. back to base) security system (without an audible alarm).

16 Floor coverings

A proprietor of a lot must ensure that all floor space within the lot (other than that comprising kitchen, laundry, lavatory or bathroom) is covered or otherwise treated to an extent sufficient to prevent the transmission therefrom of noise likely to disturb the peaceful enjoyment of the proprietor, occupier or other resident of another lot.

17 Public Artwork

The proprietors acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Original Proprietor may be required to:
- (i) incorporate public artwork into the common property of the scheme; and
 - (ii) enter into an agreement with a third party in relation to any public artwork incorporated into the common property of the scheme, including the maintenance and upkeep of the public artwork; and
- (b) the strata company must, at its cost:
- (i) comply with any agreement entered into by the Original Proprietor with respect to the public artwork as if the strata company is the Original Proprietor under the terms of the agreement; and
 - (ii) enter into a replacement agreement or deed of assignment with respect to the public artwork if required by the Original Proprietor.

18 Common Property Damage

If damage of any nature is caused to any part of the common property by the actions of any proprietor, occupier or their Invitee, that proprietor must pay for the full cost of making good the damage.

19 Council bank accounts

The council may procure that such accounts in the name of the strata company are opened and maintained in such bank or other financial institution as from time to time it thinks necessary for the purpose of the strata company and must promptly cause all monies of the strata company to be deposited in that account or accounts.

20 Compliance with easements and licences

A proprietor must not do any act or thing which is contrary to or not in accordance with the provisions of any easements or licences relating to the parcel.

21 Access Keys

- (a) A proprietor or occupier acknowledges and agrees that particular parts of the common areas in the Building will have restricted access and will not be accessible by all proprietors or occupiers, as reasonably determined by the strata company.
- (b) The strata company will provide each proprietor of a lot, a security key or access device (Access Key) to enable the proprietor to access particular restricted areas in the Building which that proprietor is permitted by the strata company to access.
- (c) The strata company may charge a reasonable fee for any additional Access Key required by a proprietor.
- (d) A proprietor of a lot must exercise a high degree of caution and responsibility in making a Access Key available for use by any occupier of that proprietor's lot and must use all reasonable endeavours, including an appropriate stipulation in any lease or licence of that lot, to ensure the return of the Access Key to the proprietor or the strata company.
 - (i) A proprietor of a lot in possession of a Access Key must not without the strata company's prior written consent duplicate the Access Key or permit it to be duplicated and must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the Access Key is not lost or handed to any person other than another proprietor and is not disposed of otherwise than by returning it to the strata company.
 - (ii) A proprietor of a lot must promptly notify the strata company if an Access Key is lost or destroyed.
 - (iii) The strata company will only arrange for a replacement of a lost or destroyed Access Key, or for any additional Access Key required by a proprietor, during normal business hours.

22 Closed Circuit Television Security

- (a) Subject to all relevant laws, the strata company may install closed circuit television security systems (CCTV Systems) on the Common Property.
- (b) Subject to all relevant laws, the council may:
 - (i) view any video surveillance recording that is collected by the CCTV Systems for the purposes of investigating any criminal or unlawful activity in or around the scheme and for any other surveillance or security purposes that the council considers necessary; and
 - (ii) disclose any recordings to a proprietor whose lot is affected by any criminal or unlawful activity that is captured by those recordings.

23 Default

If a proprietor or occupier defaults in the performance of any term or condition of any by-law not otherwise dealt with by these by-laws, and the default continues for 7 days after notice is given to the proprietor or occupier by the secretary of the strata company or the Strata Manager then the strata company and its contractors, agents and employees may enter upon any portion of a lot or the common property and make good such default and any costs or expenses incurred by the strata company in doing so shall be recoverable as a levy pursuant to section 36(1) of the Act from the proprietor or occupier making default.

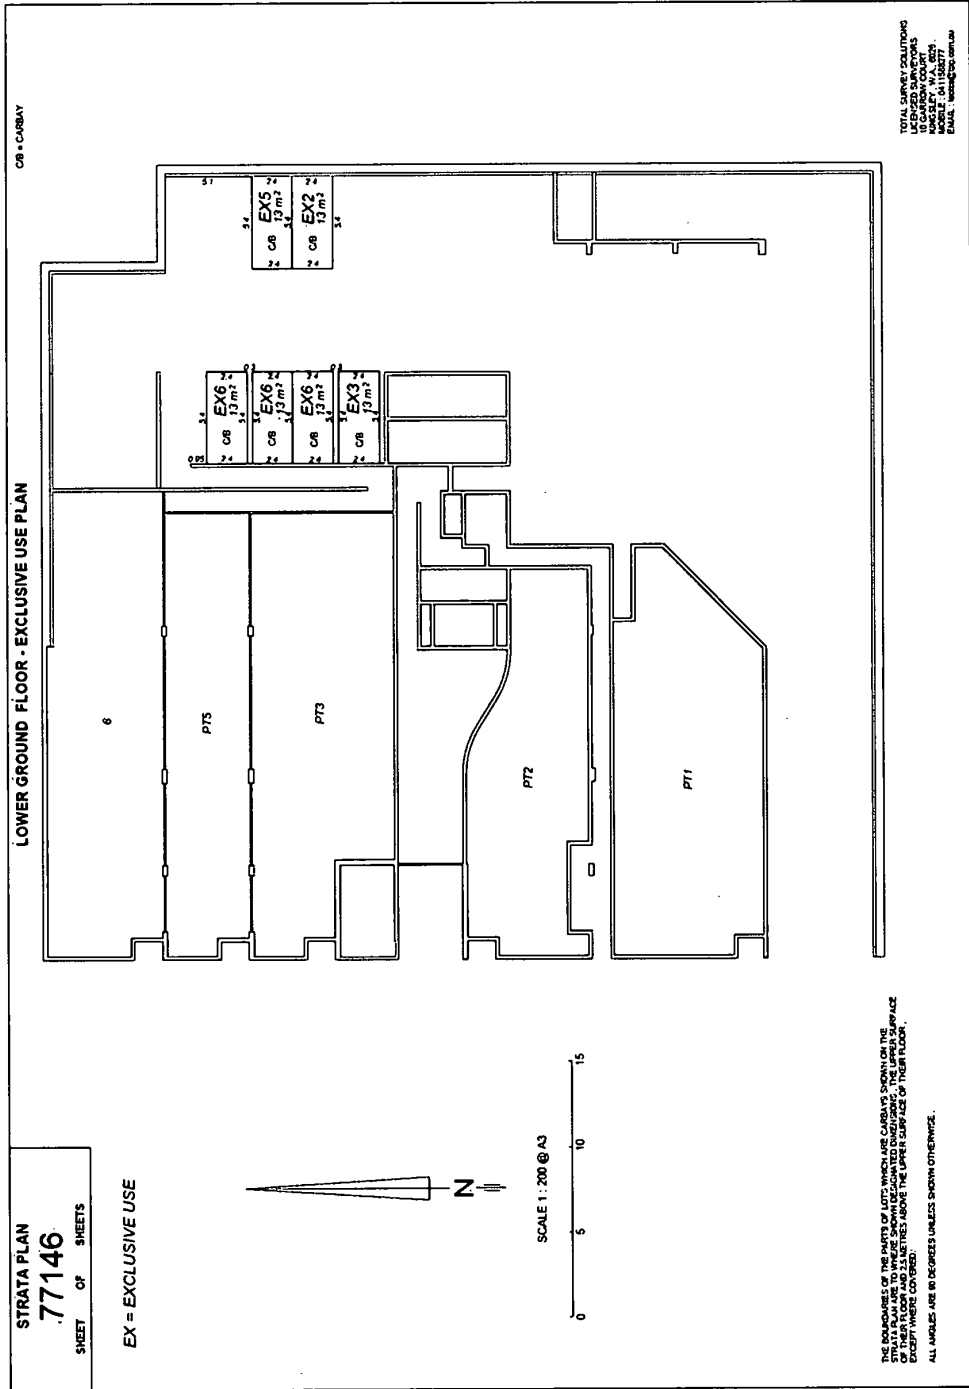

24 Legal costs

A proprietor of a lot must pay on demand to the strata company all legal costs on a solicitor-client basis which the strata company pays, incurs or expends in consequence of any default by the proprietor or occupier of that lot in the performance or observance of any bylaws including, without limit, recovery of strata company contribution fees.

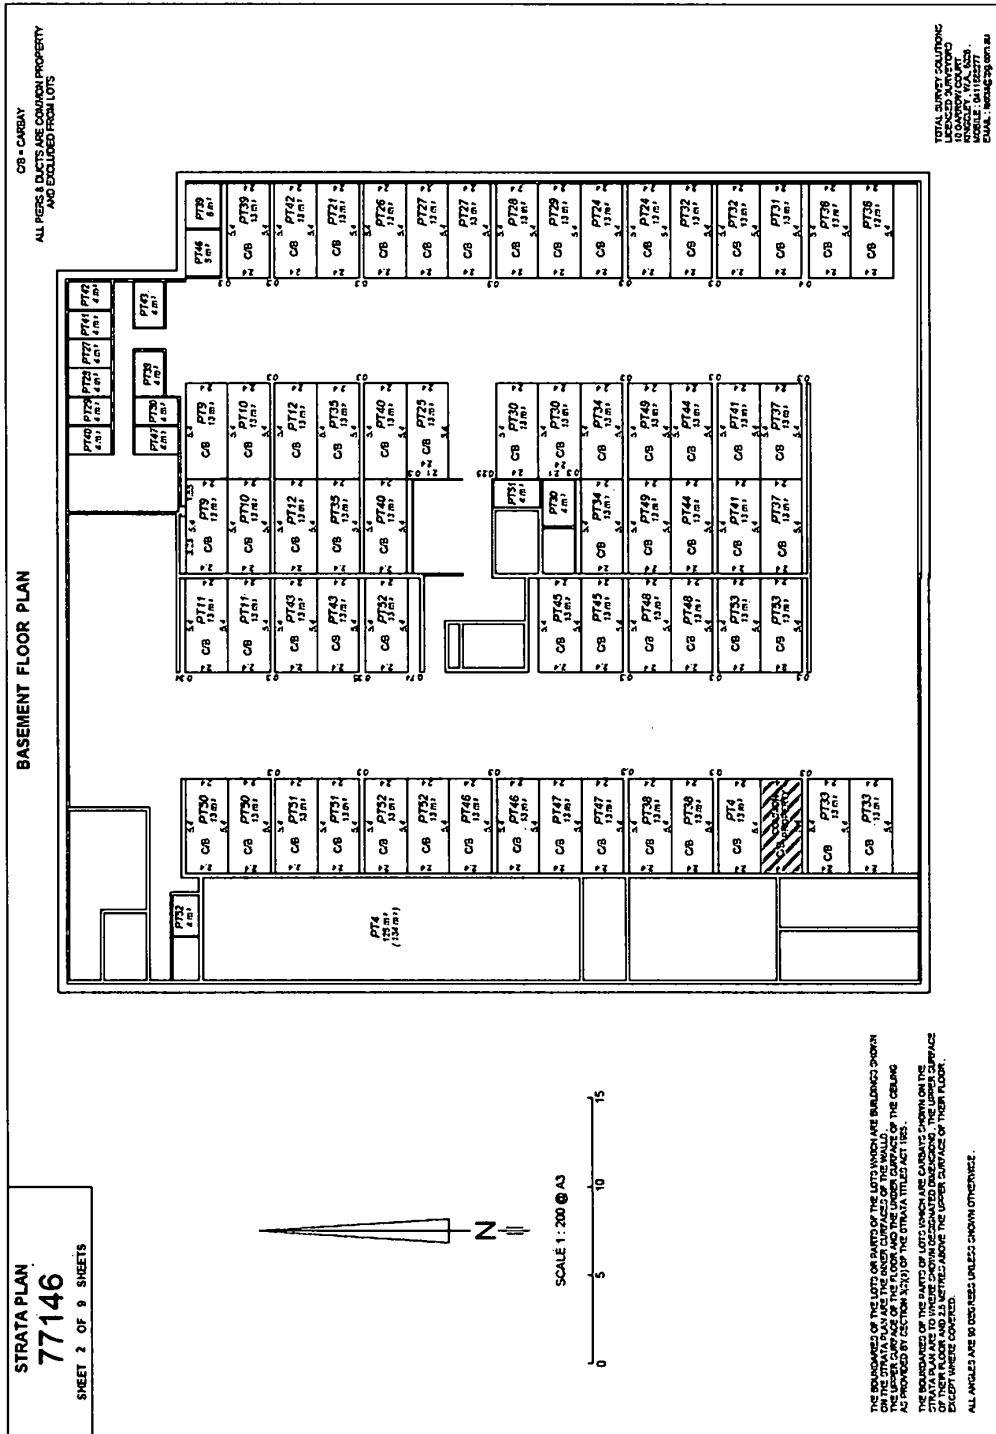

25 Electronic Delivery of Documents

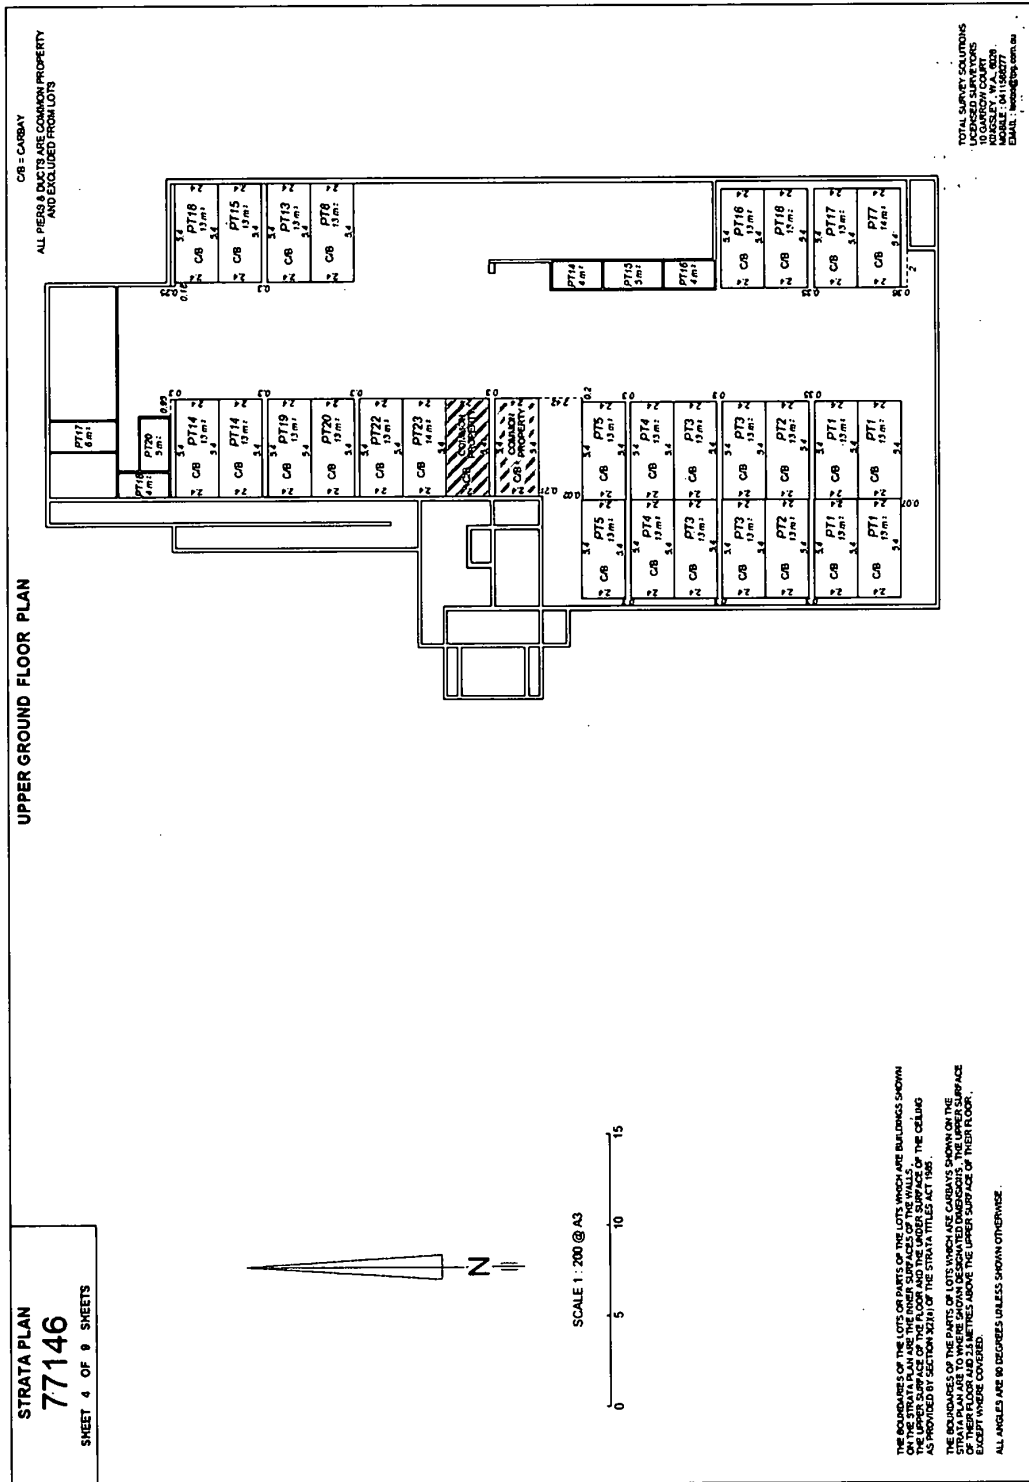

Where in the Act and/or the Strata Titles General Regulations 1996 it is implied that Notices, Minutes of Meetings, Levies or any other document or communication are required to be issued by post, if authorised in writing by a proprietor, the communication can be served on the proprietor electronically and service by that method shall be accepted by the proprietor as sufficient and as if it had been given by post.
